

The Mississippi State Personnel Board creates and oversees the policies, procedures and development opportunities that guide the employment experience for employees of the State of Mississippi.

The MSPB serves more than 130 agencies, boards and commissions; more than 32,000 current employees; an average of 60,000 job applicants annually; and more than 100,000 customers monthly.

Arlette Williams
Representative for
Mississippi State
Personnel Board

Arlette Williams has been working in the Human Resources area of state government since 2007. She currently serves as a Branch Director for the Deputy State Personnel Director at the Mississippi State Personnel Board. Arlette also serves on various committees at MSPB including the Outreach Team, Community Service Team and the Insurance Committee.

Prior to her move into state government, Arlette worked in the private sector for over 20 years as an Office Manager whose duties included: Purchasing, Import Specialty and Personnel responsibilities.

Arlette became a member of EWI in July of 2010 and currently serves on the Fund Raising Committee.

Arlette lives in Crystal Springs, MS and has two children, daughter Shambrica “Apryl” and son Jaylon Elijah and one granddaughter, Payton Amari. She is a member of the Greater Pleasant Valley Missionary Baptist Church of Crystal Springs. Interest includes listening to different genres of music, watching old movies and being with family and friends.