

Cooper Restaurants was founded in 1997, the parent company is Cooper T. Smith which is the largest stevedoring company in the United States. Ruth's Chris Steakhouse in Mobile, Al was purchased from Ruth's Chris corporate becoming their first location. Since then Mobile has been nationally recognized for it's growth and outstanding service. The second location was the purchase of Pier 4 in 2002 renovated with the vision of the Cooper family to become Felix's Fish Camp. Felix's has seen continuous growth year after year due to the incredible appeal on the Causeway. the next location was Ruth's Chris Steakhouse here in Ridgeland, MS 2008, Since then they have also been recognized nationally for their attention to detail and superior service. The most recent restaurant was in 2010 when they purchased the Blue Gill in Mobile which is the oldest restaurant on the Causeway.

Stephanie joined Cooper Restaurants in 2006 as an Assistant Manager at Felix's. In 2007 she transferred to Ruth's Mobile as an Assistant Manager followed by 2008 when she moved to Ridgeland to open the location here and was promoted to Assistant General Manager.

Introducing representative for Ruth's Chris Steakhouse Stephanie Daniel

Stephanie has been busy purchasing and moving into her new home in the Jackson area.

She loves the beach and is learning to play golf and enjoys painting. Stephanie also enjoys grilling out with friends.

EWI of Jackson is excited to welcome Stephanie and Ruth's Chris Steakhouse!